

2024 INTERNATIONAL SPRING SERIES – TOUR SCORING RULES

- All Events will be scored using the points system described below.
- Participants are not required to complete all races. A skier may not complete a race (or more) and still be included in overall tour scoring.
- There is one scoring list that incorporates both seniors and juniors.
- The junior ranking is determined by a junior skier's position in the overall series scoring list
- Relays are scored using the same points system as individual races AND all relay members receive the point value equal to their team's position; ie: a winning relay team's members all receive 100 points added to their overall series points total.
- In the case of Juniors who ski on a senior relay team, they receive the point total equal to the place their senior team took in the overall relay result. Junior relay teams also receive the point total that their junior
- Mixed affiliation relay teams are tour scored and are also eligible for prize money.
- Non format conforming relay teams are not eligible for tour scoring or prize money (IE a 4x relay team of MMMF , for example is not eligible) . They may however ski, but again are not eligible for scoring and prize money.

The first 50 athletes will get the following World Cup points in all individual competitions:
